

It's not Fair! by Rhema Productions

Written by Mike Peacock, Performed by Mike & Becky Peacock

Reviewed by Simon Belt May 2014

This show is designed to be both an entertaining theatrical experience, and to encourage people to engage with the issue of human trafficking

. The aim is to move audience members, spurring them to take action by working with human trafficking organizations & fairtrade groups. Mike and Becky Peacock, who are

Rhema Productions

, regularly perform in Arts Centres, Churches and Secondary Schools, so did it live up to its billing?

Rhema Theatre Company founders Mike & Becky Peacock and International Justice Mission (UK) have partnered together to create a unique theatrical experience.

'The It's Not Fair' is a collection of tales taken from all over the world, about children and young people trapped in situations of great injustice. But these are not just imagined stories: they are real people and real situations...